Commands and FAQ

- How many people can be on one team?

Currently, it is 22 people per team, and you are only allowed to be a part of 1 team at a time. (Making sub-teams to increase your team's player count is not allowed either.)

- Where can I find teams that I can join?

Located in our discord server, under "SMP Related" there is a channel marked "Find a Team" in channel you can see all of the teams that are accepting players currently, or you can advertise your own team here as well!

- What are all of the things that you can do with a team?

There are quite a few things you can do with a team! Some teams just enjoy the smp and play together, building amazing team bases; then there are those who have lore, spending quality time laughing together; while others grind to complete team challenges to gain more team points to be the best team out there.

- What are some useful commands I should know?

- `/team` : The base command for creating and inviting players to your team.
- `/team join` : Allows the players you invite to your team to accept any invitations that they receive.
- `/team leave` : Allows players that are not the Owner of the team to leave the team, If you are an owner transfer ownership of your team first.
- `/team disband` : Allows owner to disband teams
- `/team info (username)` : Allows you to look at details of a specific player's team

Team Challenges

Team challenges are challenges you can complete weekly to put points towards your teams standing on the Team Top Leaderboard. The top three teams are displayed at the Teams Top Points display area. Each member of your team will receive three team challenges per week that can contribute to your teams points.

Commands and FAQ

- How to access team challenges?

Once you are in a team, you can use `/challenges` to open the challenges pop-up. Navigate to find 'Team Challenges' and by clicking on that, you will be able to see your team challenges for the week. You can see the information of the challenge by clicking on the items displayed!
