

Voting System & Daily Rewards

How Do I Vote?

The easiest way to reach the vote page is by doing `/vote` from within the Minecraft server or you can type in <https://violetsmc.com/vote/> into your chosen browser which should bring you to this page:

You can access the vote pages by clicking on any of the five buttons which should open a new tab. Follow the instructions on page making sure to put in your CURRENT Minecraft username (any old usernames will not receive the rewards) and complete the reCAPTCHA correctly. Bedrock players make sure to include the '.' in front of your username. Please wait a little time for the votes to reach your Minecraft user, they are not physical and will not appear in your inventory.

- How often can I vote?

You can vote once per day per link which totals at three votes a day.

- Can I Vote offline?

Yes you can just make sure to `/vp claim` or `/vp claimall` when you join back into the server.

- Where can I use my vote keys?

In the Minecraft server you can use `/warp votes` and make your way to the crate shown in the picture below and right click to spend your keys.

- What are vote parties?

Vote parties happen when the server reaches a certain number of votes, and everyone who voted that day who is online receives an extra vote key.

- What can I get from voting?

You are more likely to obtain lower rarities than higher ones. Here is a list of each of the items within the vote crate:

Daily rewards

You can claim daily rewards through `/rewards claim` or by interacting with the rewards npc found at spawn

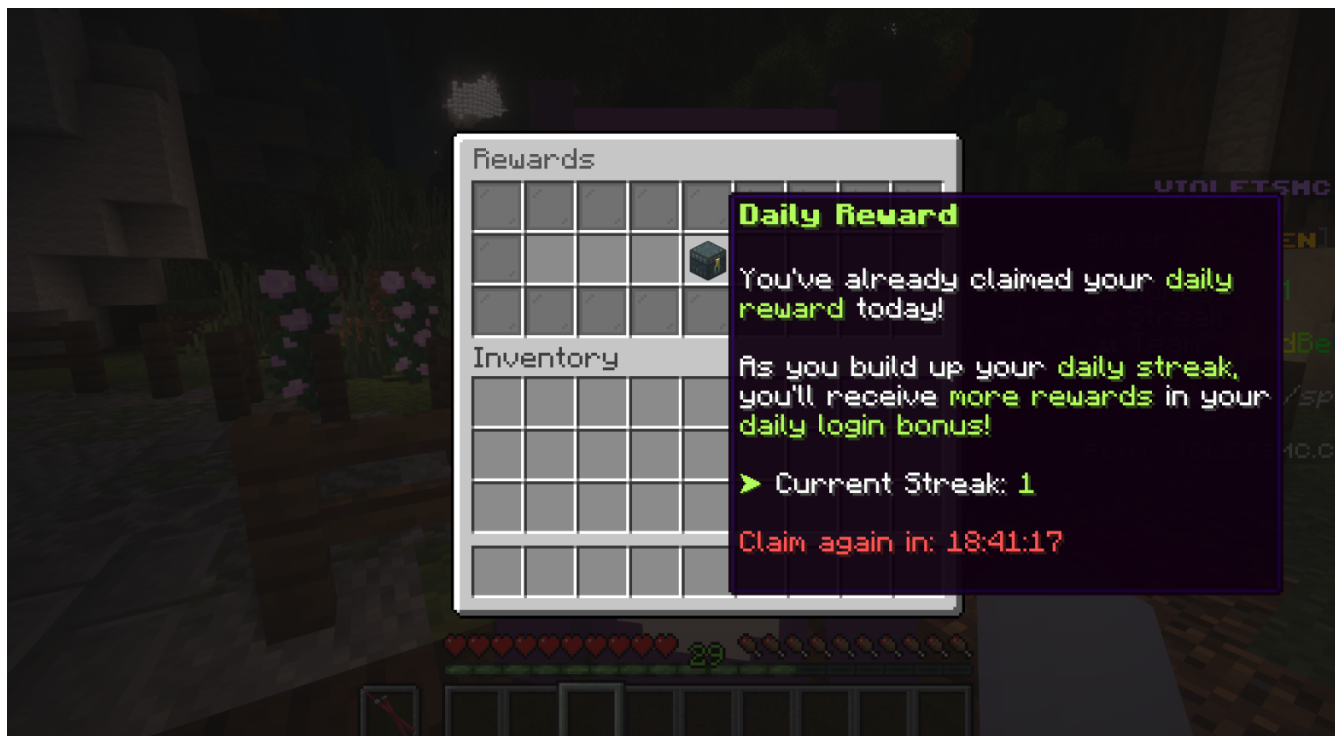

Daily rewards can be claimed once per day. You can develop a daily reward streak which will appear on the side of your screen named 'Streak:' followed by a number of how many days you have consecutively claimed your daily reward. As you build up your streak you will receive more / higher value rewards when you collect your daily login bonus.

- How can I see how long until I can claim my daily reward again?

You can use the `/rewards` command or visit the rewards npc at spawn, by clicking on the Ender chest the red text reading 'Claim again in:' will state the time until you can claim your rewards again.

- Can I collect my daily rewards offline?

You cannot collect your daily rewards offline. If you are unable to log on to claim your daily rewards within 24 hours after your last rewards claim your streak will reset back to one.
